

Budget Pricing Template

The budget identified includes the following categories of labor and hours/days/months/FTEs and direct rates. _____

Supporting documentation received _____

Fringe, labor burden rate budgeted _____

Supporting documentation _____

The budget identified includes the following categories of equipment and associated hours and rates.

Support received for equipment rates _____

Description of the material with quantities and unit prices? _____

Supporting Documentation for the material costs _____

Other Direct Costs identified by type, quantity and cost _____

Rationale and purpose for the cost _____

Supporting documentation received for the costs _____

Did recipient identify each subcontract with estimated cost and purpose?

Supporting documentation establishing the subcontract costs as reasonable _____

What events are contingencies intended to cover? _____

What supporting documentation was received to support the contingency? _____

(Note: There are two types of contingency costs— one that is reasonably certain to occur. One for which the probability of occurrence is unknown. The cost associated with the first type of contingency may be allowable to the extent it is supportable, the second is not.)

Overhead/Indirect/G&A rate(s) used. _____

Supporting Documentation received for the rates _____

Was a Technical Analysis received which identifies the cost elements as allowable, allocable and reasonable?